

HSPH-CPHP Training & Education Products

Title	Training Modality
Emergency Preparedness: An Overview for Public Health	Auto-loading CD-ROM with narration and synchronized PowerPoint slides (3 hours)
Emergency Preparedness: An Overview for Public Health & Hospitals Hospital Emergency Incident Command System Communications Systems & Equipment Epidemiology & Surveillance Legal Issues in Public Health Emergencies Health Risk Communication in Public Health Emergencies Weapons of Mass Destruction: An Overview for Public Health Worker Safety & Personal Protective Equipment Control of Population Movement in Public Health Emergencies	Complete train-the-trainer curriculum for each, including: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • introductory exercise • 2 hour presentation with facilitator's notes & speaking points • pre & post-test • group exercise • list of related resources
Community-Based Planning for Emergency Response Incident Command System for Public Health Clinical Aspects of WMD: Biological Agents Clinical Aspects of WMD: Chemical Agents Clinical Aspects of WMD: Radiological & Nuclear Agents Clinical Aspects of WMD: Blast Injury History of Biological Warfare & Bioterrorism Smallpox for Clinicians Smallpox for First Responders History of Smallpox: The Disease & Its Eradication Disaster Management in Boston History of Arms Control & Non-proliferation Efforts Who's Coming to Work: Disaster Staffing Hospital Hazmat Connectivity & Public Health Preparedness: Resolving Conflict & Building Collaboration to Enhance System Readiness Bioterrorism & Public Health: The Ethics of Public Health Practice in Crisis Settings	Presentations for in-person delivery, ranging from 1.5-3 hours duration
Basic Preparedness: What You Need to Know What is the Terrorist Threat? What Should I Know about Emergency Response Agencies? An Introduction to the Alphabet Soup of Emergency Preparedness Leadership for National, State, and Local Preparedness: Conflict Resolution, Negotiation, & Problem Solving Strategies Anticipating Avian Influenza & Other Emerging Infectious Diseases: Lessons Learned from SARS	Webcasts of trainings, ranging from 1-8 hours duration
It Could Happen Here: Lessons Learned from the SARS Experience	Video (8 hours)
Isolation & Quarantine	Training Satellite Broadcast (4 hours)
Avian Influenza Tabletop Exercise Toolkit to Assist Public Health in Conducting Preparedness Exercises	Tabletop Exercises
Preparing for Public Health Emergencies: Meeting the Challenges in Rural America	Printed resources for self-study